Candid Conversations with the Right Honourable Paul Martin

The former Finance Minister and Prime Minister of Canada joins our celebration in an intimate and interactive conversation. Mr. Martin's career in business and politics aligned him with some of the most successful Canadian business families including work with Power Corp of Canada (The Desmarais Family) early in his career. Mr. Martin is himself an entrepreneur of distinction who successfully transitioned his business interest to next generation leadership during his own transition from businessman to Political Leader and he remains active globally on projects addressing significant challenges of our times. Our audience will not only be engaged, but are invited to a unique opportunity to join in on this conversation.
